START

- Formulate questions about a topic in geography.
- Pose possible answers at local to global scales.

- Use maps, charts, graphs, and geospatial technologies to gather and organize geographic data.
- Analyze data for spatial information.

INQUIRE

THINK CRITICALLY

How do we analyze the locations and relationships of people and places?

COMMUNICATE

SOLVE PROBLEMS

- Use maps, charts, and graphs to communicate conclusions.
- Think about planning for the future.
- Pursue other geographic questions.

- Use data to answer geographic questions.
- Make decisions and justify conclusions with spatial evidence.

Source: 2011 Minnesota K-12 Academic Standards in Social Studies.

Minnesota Department of Education
2847i_10/14